Scathing Denunciation.

"I'd like to have the authority to in vestigate this Administration for about six months," Mr. Hughes told 4,000 hearers in the Fargo Auditorium to-night. This declaration made a greater hit with the crowd than any other which he uttered to-day. His exceptation of the Wilson regime was more scathing than any in which he had indulged since the beginning of the campaign. He struck it from all sides, denouncing it for profil-gacy, for the filling of offices with incompetent men in order to pay po
